

REEL TACTICAL

Military Advisor for Film & Television

Elite Military Experience for Authentic Film & TV

ABOUT US

Reel Tactical is where cinematic storytelling meets real-world precision. Co-founded by a battle-proven British Army veteran and an award-winning film producer, we bring unmatched tactical precision, creative firepower and battlefield authenticity to film and television productions.

Whether you're building a visceral war drama, a pulse-pounding action thriller, or a globe-trotting spy epic, Reel Tactical ensures every shot feels real. We speak both languages — Hollywood and military — and we translate flawlessly.

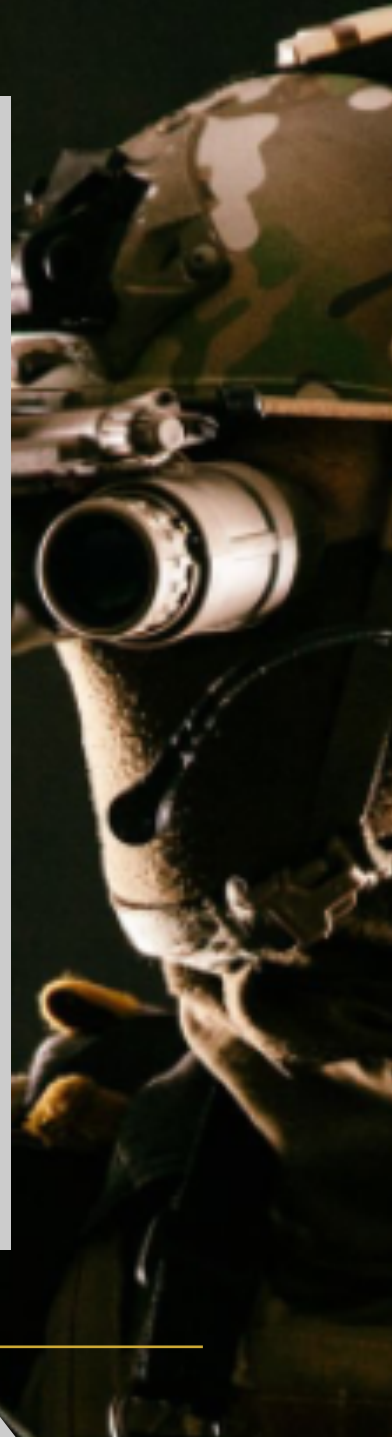

Need sniper sequences with bite? Room-clearing scenes that feel raw and right? Dialogue that sounds like it was torn from a debrief? We're embedded from pre-production through post to make sure your story hits hard and lands true.

At Reel Tactical, we understand that great storytelling hinges on the details. That's why we bring more than just military experience—we bring storytelling instincts, a passion for accuracy, and a commitment to helping filmmakers craft unforgettable, authentic moments.

SERVICES

- Military & Technical Advising – Authenticity in tactics, movement, dialogue, weapon handling and military protocol.
 - At Reel Tactical, we bridge the gap between real-world experience and cinematic storytelling—bringing battlefield-tested precision to your production. Our services are tailored to meet the demands of directors, producers, and talent who value authenticity, safety, and performance detail.
- Training for Actors – (Including Bootcamps) – Movement, language, weapon handling, combat realism.
 - We work directly with cast to build confidence and realism through 1-on-1 or group coaching. From technical walk-throughs to performance-enhancing insights, we help bring the character to life with conviction.
- Firearms & Set Safety – Certified in weapons handling. Expert in on-set safety, firearm etiquette, and legal compliance.
 - We ensure every firearm is handled with confidence, safety, and realism. From stance and reloads to malfunctions and muzzle discipline, we train actors to carry like they've lived it.
- Script Development – Consult on story logic, tactical realism, co-develop scripts with realistic military realism.
 - We collaborate with writers and producers to shape stories that ring true—whether advising on tactical logic or co-developing arcs for military and security characters.

Our mission is simple: to let you focus on what matters most, while we take care of everything else.
